

Manufacturers' Notification about HFC Status

As of November 30, 2021, the following companies have submitted their initial notification to Ecology about the status of each product class using restricted HFCs.

AAON
Accella Polyurethane Systems
Arctic/Trane
Arneg
Bally Refrigerated Boxes
Bard Manufacturing Company
BSH Home Appliances Corporation
Carrier Corporation
CHI Overhead Doors
Commercial Thermal Solutions
Continental Refrigerator
CRC Industries
Daikin Applied
Danfoss
DAP Products
Diehl Aviation
Dover Food Retail
Drake Refrigeration
DuPont de Nemours
Emerson Climate Technologies
Everidge
GE Appliances
Gorenje
Guangzhou Wanbao Group Refrigerator Company
Heatcraft Refrigeration Products
HTPG/Rheem
Hussman Corporation
ICP Building Solutions Group/ICP Adhesives and Sealants
Ipeco Holdings
Jamison Door Company
Johns Manville
Johnson Controls
KeepRite Refrigeration
Kingspan Insulation
Lawson Products
Leer
LG Electronics
Marvel Refrigeration
McMaster Carr
Midea America Corporation
Midea Group Company
Multistack
Napps Technology Corporation
National Refrigeration & Air Conditioning Canada Corporation
Niles Steel Tank Company
Panasonic Appliances Refrigeration Systems de Mexico
Perlick Corporation
PHC Corporation
Qingdao Haier Special Freezer Company
RAE Corporation
Raynor Garage Doors
Safran Cabin Galley U.S.
Samsung Electronics Company
Samsung HVAC America
SandenVendo America
Security Equipment Corporation
Subzero Group
Tecumseh Products Company
The Delfield Company
Trane
Traulsen, A Division of ITW Food Equipment Group
Utility Trailer Manufacturing Company
Vinotemp International
Whirlpool
Zero Zone

November 30, 2021