

Caution

Canisters on Beach

Watch out for aluminum canisters about 10 inches tall. They are often in the high tide zone. These canisters may contain small amounts of phosphine gas - a harmful gas used to control rodents on ships.

DO NOT OPEN THE CAP

If you see any or have one in your possession, please call Washington Dept of Ecology at:

360-407-6300

WASHINGTON STATE
DEPARTMENT OF
E C O L O G Y

& U.S. Coast Guard